

La Perouse

Rawhide

Traveling all alone through the tundra

Rawhide

Carrying all these maps and secret signs

Rawhide

Try to find a way back home

Still can hear the sounds from running horses

Still can hear the sounds from haunting wolfs

These sighs and revelations never leave me

The lonley one that managed to survive

Maneged to survive through stormy weather

Through ice and rain through that moquito bane

The only one upon this mission

The only one who will survive

The lonley one

The lonley one

The lonley one
