

Agnus Dei

Whenever I find myself in distant sorrow
Whenever I'll find myself
I'll turn to the

I'll turn to the for someone to follow
For someone to follow through Eternity

Through endless days through endless night,s I follow the through an endless sea

Deep within me deep within the I'll found a piece a peace that will Set me free

Theres a pattern in the snow
Theres a coulour on the crow
I had to follow

Theres a shadow in between
Another picture on the screen
I had to go

Theres a rumour in the air
Another motion I had to share
I had to go

Theres a mermaid on the street
Kind of cute kind of sweet
I had to follow
