

As if time were on our side

Last time I,ll saw you
You were lying in your bed
Youre eyes were closed
You re cheeks were burning red
The peaches I,ll sent you were mouldrin in its cage
Ill felt the rain were coming , felt it pouring in my head

And I did belive
Yes I did belive

Next time we met in that monestry of faith
We were talking but the loss all these principels in vain
All these signs I was searching for meant nothing at that time
All these words we were exploring were transcending into .rhymes

And I did belive
Yes I did belive
That if time were on our side
That if we could run and hide
That if time were like a child running wild
That if all that we denied
Everything we sacrificed
Every tear we cried were burning from inside

Now and then some eccoes from your presens seems to last...
Creeping through my mind and regenerate its past
Sleeping on the cradle and cuddle by the bed
Guess that last relief is just a glimmer in my head
Cause I do belive
Yes I do belive

That time is on our side
That we can run and hide
That time is like a child running wild
That all that we denied
Everything we sacrificed
Every tear we cry are burning from inside
