

Close your eyes

She told me she loved me I told her I loved her to There was nothing between us nothing except that black and blue

As if we were dreamers sharing that strangest brew While we were screaming there was only us only us shining through

Let me hold you through the night , taste your fear share your sighs
Were your sins all blessed in lies waste your time close your eye

Told me she needed just another point of view so we reproduce all our hope all our faith through you

As if only we tasted that kind of innocence no time would be wasted no time would be one ageing fence

Let me hold y through the night , taste your fear share your sighs
Were your sins all blessed in lies waste your time close your eye
