

The sky is all over us

Walking through the shadows following your path
Faces in that strange ligh
Faces in the dark

Listening to that cold sound
Listening to that rain
No one here can see me or share the pain

Eyes so wide open Reflect these second sighs
Reduces the vision
Seducer in the nighth

The minute I lost you
I,ll fail to hold Lost my religion
That everlastning soul

The sky is all over us cant you see Dream is over its up to the Creatures out of limbo
Preachers in the dark
Teachers on that crossroad
Belivers without doubt

If wishes were horses beggars might ride
You were lying down beside me no secrets to hide

Your arm,s all around me the smell of your breath one moment of confidence Through solitude and death

Our hearts so wide open one transparent mind pure as that virgins rose the broom and the bride

The sky is all over us cant you see
Dream is over its up to the
Creatures out of limbo
Preachers in the dark
Teachers on that crossroad
Belivers without doubt

The sky is all over us
The sky is all over us
The sky is all over us
